A simplified guide to a better advisor and client experience

We want you to have greater control of the total Lincoln MoneyGuard® experience.

These changes will help you create a speedier and more customized application process for your clients.

Point-of-sale

Prepare for the client meeting by running a projection of values within Lincoln DesignIt™ or WinFlex.

Print the MoneyGuard Checklist. Use it to guide you through the forms needed with each application submission.

Client interview

For greater control over the interview experience, the client can choose how they want the interview to be conducted.

Client can complete Part I, LTC Supplement and Part II on paper with their advisor. Advisor submits with point-of-sale forms. If additional information is needed to make an underwriting decision, Lincoln will call the client for details.

OR

Client can request a phone interview conducted by a Lincoln representative. Advisor submits interview request with Part I. Lincoln emails a link to advisor and client to schedule the interview. If the interview is not scheduled within 72 hours, Lincoln will call the client to schedule.

A Lincoln representative will call your client and complete the LTC Supplement and Part II. The telephone interview is now shorter than before (25–30 minutes). The Part II will only be completed for clients who are determined to be eligible for Lincoln MoneyGuard II, based on answers provided on the Medical LTC Supplement.

Underwriting advantages

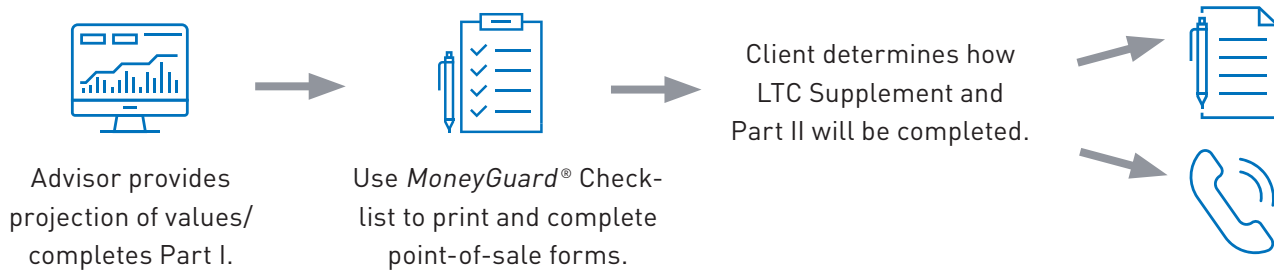

Prequalification tools help make for a smoother, efficient, underwriting process for you and your client. Lincoln MoneyGuard employs some of the most advanced underwriting in the industry. These are just a few examples that make Lincoln an industry leader in underwriting:

- A personal history interview, which takes 25 to 30 minutes, and a client-friendly worksheet to help them prepare
- A cognitive assessment, which takes 10 to 20 minutes for clients, age 61 and older
- Financial underwriting and suitability performed concurrently with medical underwriting
- Immediate ordering of MIB and Rx
- No exams or labs required

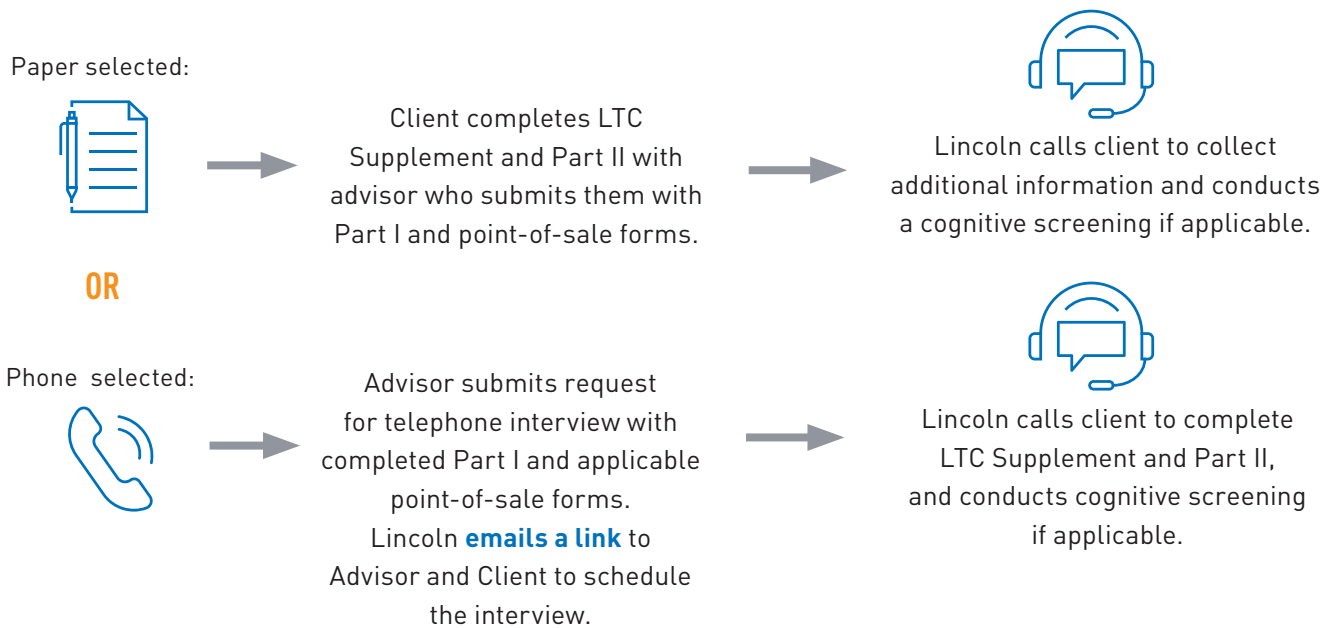

Policy issuance and delivery

- The enhanced process will help streamline the overall underwriting process — you can expect a quicker decision notification with reduced not-in-good-order applications (NIGOs).
- Approved policies will be issued after receipt of all requirements and any approvals needed.
- Policy is placed when funds and delivery requirements are received and deemed in good order.
- eDelivery is available for an even faster delivery.
